Additional Terms and Conditions

1. This Warranty is effective for purchases of Product on and after the effective date set forth below. MaxLite reserves the right to modify this Warranty from time to time; any such modification shall be effective for all purchases made on and after the effective date of such revised Warranty.
2. This Warranty is extended only to the original purchaser of the Product from MaxLite or from an authorized MaxLite distributor/dealer, and is otherwise void.
3. MaxLite is not responsible for the labor costs or other expenses associated with Product removal or installation, including, without limitation, shipping costs incurred to return defective or nonconforming Products or any damages that may occur during the return of Products to MaxLite.
4. This Warranty does not cover any third-party products or devices used in conjunction with the Product.

5. This Warranty is void if the Product is operated outside of its normal operating conditions or has been subject to accident, neglect, abuse, misuse or acts of God, or has been operated at excessive temperatures, and shall only be effective if the Product has been used, installed, operated and maintained in accordance with the manufacturer's instructions.
6. This Warranty shall not apply to any Product which is used, installed, operated or maintained in violation of any applicable standard, code or instructions for use, including, without limitation, those contained in the Standards for Safety of Underwriters Laboratory, Inc. (UL); the National Electric Code (NEC); Standards for the American National Standards Institute (ANSI) or, in Canada, the Canadian Standards Association (CSA).

The representative shall also have the right to invite other manufacturers' representatives to evaluate the lighting system components.
10. If an identical replacement Product is not reasonably available, MaxLite reserves the right, at its sole discretion, to replace the defective Product with a different product. MaxLite also reserves the right to utilize new, reconditioned, refurbished, repaired or remanufactured products or parts in the Warranty repair/replacement process.
11. This Warranty is limited to Products purchased in, and for use within, the United States or Canada.
12. This Warranty shall not apply to Products, parts, advice, assistance or service which MaxLite furnishes as a business courtesy or for no fee.
13. In the event that LED's fail to operate, such shall constitute a Product defect under this Warranty only if at least 20% of LED's per Product have stopped illuminating.

15. This Warranty is void if customer is in default on any portion of its payment obligations to MaxLite or to a MaxLite distributor/dealer.
16. In the event that a customer intends to conduct any tests on any Product alleged to be defective or subject to this Warranty, the conditions of such test shall be mutually agreed upon by the customer and MaxLite, in writing; the actual test shall be scheduled by mutual agreement; and MaxLite and its representatives may be present at any such tests.
17. Each and every provision of any applicable law, regulation, and/or clause which is required by any applicable law or regulation to be inserted into this Limited Warranty shall be deemed to be inserted herein, and this limited warranty shall be read and enforced as though it were included herein.
